

Slow Internet driving you CRAZY? Get
DSL Speed for Dial Up
from $3.99/month

proxuconn
DSL Speed for Dial-up

Enter zip:

OK

Support The DrudgeReport; Visit Our Advertisers

DRUDGE REPORT

XXXXX DRUDGE REPORT XXXXX THU JULY 08, 2004 10:09:35 ET XXXXX

CAN'T KEEP HANDS OFF EACH OTHER

Hugs, kisses to the cheek, affectionate touching of the face, caressing of the back, grabbing of the arm, fingers to the neck, rubbing of the knees...

John Kerry and John Edwards can't keep their hands off each other!

In the past 48 hours, "candidate handling" has become the top buzz on the trail.

News photographers have been going wild with photos of the two Johns.

"I've been covering Washington and politics for 30 years. I can say I've never seen this much touching between two men, publicly," e-mailed one wire photographer.

When asked if the Johns are acting out a cynical focus group series of poses -- perhaps to show warmth to the chilly Bush/Cheney -- a Kerry spokesperson explained: "I think we're just seeing genuine affection between them."

But the spokesperson added, "I hope we do not see them wearing matching outfits when they ride bikes this weekend."

Developing...

-----
Filed By Matt Drudge

Reports are moved when circumstances warrant

<http://www.drudgereport.com> for updates

(c)DRUDGE REPORT 2004

Not for reproduction without permission of the author